Directions

From Peterborough, take the A605 to Northampton. Once you have crossed the A1 after about 9 miles you will come to the Oundle roundabout (this is the second roundabout after the A1). Turn right and follow the road into Oundle. Up through the traffic lights, round the right hand bend, head straight on past the war memorium (Beans on the right) on West Street, towards the Church. The road then bends left onto Mill Road with a turning on the right onto Stoke Hill. The Courthouse in the corner of Mill Road and Stoke Hill.

From Watford, up the M1 and onto the A14, past the Esso Garage, miss the next small junction and come off at the Junction signed Kettering / Corby. Follow the signs For A43 Corby (not A6003). Carry on the A43 past Corby towards Stamford and just after Deene turn right into Bulwick and then follow the signs to Southwick. Once in Southwick, go past the Village Hall and The Shuckburgh Arms Pub. Take the next right up the hill towards Glaphorn. Go straight through Glaphorn towards Oundle. Once in Oundle keep going straight on until you reach the Monument in Oundle High Street. At the war memorium (Barclays Bank on the left, Post office on the right) turn right down West Street. Head straight on down West Street, towards the Church. The road then bends left onto Mill Road with a turning on the right onto Stoke Hill. The Courthouse in the corner of Mill Road and Stoke Hill.

From Huntingdon, join the A14 towards Kettering and the Midlands. Exit at Jntn 13 and turn right at the round-about onto the A605. After approx. 7 miles you will come to the main Oundle round-about. Take your first left towards Oundle, continue through a set of traffic lights and continue past the war memorium until you reach a Church. The road then bends left onto Mill Road with a turning on the right onto Stoke Hill. The Courthouse in the corner of Mill Road and Stoke Hill.

From Nottingham, take the A606 to Melton Mowbray and on through to Oakham. Take the A 6003 out of Oakham towards Uppingham and Corby. Turn left onto the A47 towards Peterborough. At Duddington you will come to a roundabout marked Corby A43 right. Take this turn and carry on past Laxton and Blatherwycke. You need to take the left turn into Bulwick and then follow the signs to Southwick. Once in Southwick, keep heading straight on past the Shuckburgh Arms Pub then take the next right towards Glaphorn. Go straight through Glaphorn towards Oundle. Once in Oundle keep going straight on until you reach the war memorium in Oundle High Street. At the Monument (Barclays Bank on the left, Post office on the right) turn right down West Street. Head straight on down West Street, towards the Church. The road then bends left onto Mill Road with a turning on the right onto Stoke Hill. The Courthouse in the corner of Mill Road and Stoke Hill.
